To Whom it may concern:

We enlisted Valutec to audit our property tax records and help us save money on our property taxes. We have had an extremely pleasant experience with them. They are very professional in all aspects and have established relationships that are very amicable and respectful with all parties involved in the process. Our city assessor was pleased with their cooperation and the professionalism shown.

The thoroughness of the paperwork and knowledge of the laws was also impressive. None of the items they queried were changed by either the city or state property tax entities. We will be saving property tax expense monies for the next few years that have made this experience very worthwhile. My other concern was the amount of time that I would spend on the project and it was minimal and I received some educational benefits about the law along the way. I would highly recommend them!

Yours truly,
